I had several milestone events that occurred during my husband's bout with Stage IV cancer. I turned 60 the December before he died. Many friends came together and surprised me with a beautiful party, but I missed not having my husband there by my side, as he was at home, in hospice care. Several ...

In the years I suffered from dissociative disorder, I felt emotionally numb. Any emotions I did feel just disappeared in an instant. I struggled to receive and give empathy. I didn't react much to anything happening around me. I had numbed senses, everything was lost, and nothing felt familiar. I ...
