I teach twice a week and my students range in age from two and a half years old at the start of the year to pushing four years old by the end. That is a lot of development in one year, and that is why I find this age so much fun to teach. My school follows monthly themes but one theme that we teach ...

Educational toys (sometimes called "instructive toys") are objects of play, generally designed for children, which are expected to stimulate learning. They are often intended to meet an educational purpose such as helping a child develop a particular skill or teaching a child about a particular subject. They often simplify, miniaturize, or model activities and objects used by adults.
