Absalom and Achitophel was originally published in November 1681 (a "second part" appeared in 1682 but is not included here). The text of this on-line edition is based on that in The Works of John Dryden (1882-92), though I've introduced some changes from other texts, especially the California Edition. It is meant only as an annotated teaching edition, and makes no pretense to being a ...

In 1959, North American Aviation was awarded a contract to build "Weapons System 110" (WS-110). On paper, the project's goals seemed insurmountable; not just the biggest craft ever to take to the skies, but it was to be the fastest as well, to cruise at 3 times the speed of sound, at a time when no plane had yet flown that fast.
